

HKU MSocSc (Counselling) Alumni Association

ART JAM

Everyone of us has the potential to fully express our inner self through a medium without boundaries and limitations. It's called 'painting yourself'. Colours instill life into the otherwise mundane world we live in, as well as depict and outline our characters, personalities and emotions. Have you ever figured out what your colour is? Join us for an evening of art, self expression and inspiration. You will be amazed by your own true colours and what these can tell you about yourself.
